

We start February with snow on the ground—a reminder that we're still in deep winter. However, we're warmed by the arrival of new drinks into our catalogue this month and some welcome promotions for February.

Price increases are a feature of this time of year. Affected by factors such as the sterling devaluation and budgetary changes to some cider classifications, a number of our brands have increased their prices. These are highlighted in our February Price List and include Arbor Ales, Double Dutch, Harry's Cider, Hogan's Cider, Once upon a Tree, Sixteen Ridges Vineyard and The Sweet Potato Spirit Co.

NEW Hobsons Brewery / Oldfields Cider

Hobsons are celebrating over 25 years of brewing in Shropshire. Their ethos for everything local has remained at the heart of the brewery and they have grown organically to be the stand out brewery in the region. Sister company Oldfields is a collaboration with local hop farmer Geoff Thompson from nearby Oldfields Farm and Hobsons, who between them have created a superb range of Worcestershire ciders.
