

Fever-Tree launched their Indian Tonic Water in the UK in early 2005. Taste is paramount to Fever-Tree which is why the co-founders travelled to some of the most remote, beautiful and sometimes dangerous regions of the world to source the highest quality natural ingredients from small specialist suppliers.

Since launching, Fever-Tree have launched at least one new exquisite product every year. The result is an extensive range delicious drinks to mix or enjoy on their own, many of which are award-winning.
